

Farmers wanted!

Traineeship in growing in a Polytunnel

Could you be a trainee at Lambeth Poly on Tulse Hill Estate?

About Lambeth Poly

The project started in July 2012. Residents grow salad leaves for sale to a local restaurant and veg box scheme.

Lambeth Poly won Capital Growth's Growing for Gold capital-wide Enterprise Award.

Now the project is scaling up and wants to train more local people.

- gain work experience
- learn about growing crops in a polytunnel
- get an accredited qualification, 'Growing in a Poly Tunnel' with 2 x level 2 units
- be in at the beginning of a new social enterprise
- contribute to the future of local food in Lambeth

May 16th – July 8th

8 weekly sessions (seven Thursdays and one Friday) 10.30 – 2.30
plus one half hour morning or evening maintenance session

To find out more and apply for the traineeship:

Contact project co-ordinator Fiona 07971 065821

Visit the tunnel Open Day Saturday 11th May 11 – 2

Mail us lambethpoly@gmail.com Follow us on twitter @lambethpoly

We are also looking for an admin volunteer: computer, research and organisational skills required

